

Dr. Rose Berkun is a Clinical Associate Professor of Anesthesiology at the Jacobs School of Medicine and Biomedical Sciences at SUNY Buffalo, where she also serves as Associate Program Director for the University at Buffalo Anesthesiology Residency. She holds a secondary appointment as Clinical Assistant Professor of Anesthesiology at the Herbert Wertheim College of Medicine at Florida International University. A proud graduate of the Jacobs School of Medicine and Biomedical Sciences, Dr. Berkun also completed her residency training in Anesthesiology at SUNY Buffalo.

A leader in anesthesiology and organized medicine, Dr. Berkun is the Past President of the New York State Society of Anesthesiologists and the founder and President of Northeast Ambulatory Anesthesia, a practice specializing in office-based anesthesia services across Western New York. She also serves as Medical Director of Anesthesia Services at the Aesthetic Associates Center in Buffalo, NY.

Dividing her time between Buffalo and Miami, Dr. Berkun is actively engaged in professional leadership and advocacy. She is a board member and Chair of the Women in Medicine Committee for the Miami-Dade County Medical Association, a member of the Florida Medical Association, and a delegate to the American Medical Association.

In 2016, Dr. Berkun founded UB DoctHERS, a professional network for women physicians, scientists, faculty, residents, and students. The organization is dedicated to addressing contemporary challenges in medicine and science while fostering mentorship, career advancement, and equal opportunities for women.

Dr. Berkun is deeply committed to mentoring and sponsoring women physicians, championing leadership and equity within both academic medicine and organized medicine.
